“ All the secrets of doing bodywork/painting cars I got from Charlie Moen. He liked to fish my pond,too. He always struck up a conversation where ever we bumped into each other. One of the most sincere people I've met. So sorry for the loss.

“ Jan, so sorry to see about Charlie's passing. Going on 40 years together, wow. Same for Steve and I, so I can only imagine how he will be missed. Sounds like lots of family to share memories and have close by during this time. Stay well my friend.

“ Jan- I'm so sorry to hear about Charlie's passing. Oh, the memories I have of you two doing our younger years! When I think of Charlie, I think of both of you and I always have to smile. I know he will be missed by so many. I smile now thinking of the conversation he is having with my dad in heaven. Hugs to you my long time friend. Thinking of you!

“ Janet. We are so saddened to hear of Charlie’s passing. We both really liked Charlie. His sense of humor, his patience and kindness. He was truly a human being that we both wanted to be with. We regret that we didn’t get together for one last rare time. How we are all feeling that each day and each minute are so precious. I tried to call yesterday, but couldn’t get through to leave a message. Was up most of the night trying to send this. Computer literacy is not our strength. We love you and Charlie. We know how deeply you will miss him. It’s been nearly 2 years since Steve died, and I am just now feeling the freedom and joy of getting through the disabling grief. You loved him intensely, and he felt that, then and now. It is death that makes life so precious. Be grateful, and be kind to yourself. Call anytime. Come anytime. And I can come visit you if you want the company. Just know we are here.
